Your Impact

Take 11-year-old Siyoka Rupsi who hails from East Jaintia Hill in Meghalaya. Currently in class 3, she belongs to a tribal community and her father is a farmer. With seven people in her family, Siyoka says life has turned a new leaf for her after joining the AIM for Seva Free Student Hostel. It's not fair to compare Bagepalli with the hills, she says. Life was hard and different. At the hostel, this chirpy child enjoys play and lots of jokes. She aspires to become an engineer.

POSTCARD

Dear Team Boston,

I joined the hostel in 2016. My father works as a security guard and when the situation at home got difficult, he decided to send me to a hostel to ensure my education does not get affected. Besides me I have a sibling at home. If I had not come to the hostel, I may have dropped out of school. I enjoy reading books. I am very happy to be here. I have decided to become a teacher when I grow up.
