CELEBRATIONS

The hostel recently organised an annual day programme which saw participation of other Chatralayams. On this occasion, our students performed a drama on clean and digital environment of India. This was followed by a dance programme. The function concluded with speeches by students on their experience of living in an AIM for Seva Chatralayam.

Be it Diwali or Ganesh Chaturthi, festivals are celebrated with lot of joy in the hostel., Ghatasthapana and Durga pooja was celebrated by all the 31 girls residing in the hostel during Navaratri.

RECREATION

A special trip was organised for 10 girls to Mumbai to participate in Bhaubig where sisters tie threads on the wrists of brothers. An organisation called Anaam Prem brought together children, both boys and girls from different organisations to encourage healthy bonding. The students were taken to Mumbai for a sight-seeing tour.

VOLUNTEERS

Recently, 6 students from Jain College, Belgaum visited the hostel and taught our girls how to make paper bags and the importance of eco-friendly bags. The workshop lasted two hours. As part of a project on environment awareness, the students from Jain College taught our students of the Belgaum Chatralayam the importance of recycling and environmental protection.

SPORTS

Our student are champions when it comes to athletics.

FACILITY EXPANSION

We have added three rooms - one office room, a tuition room and a warden room to the hostel.
